Overview

Ideal for imaginative individuals, our Bachelor of Arts will develop your creativity and critical thinking, and combine theoretical study and practical, industry-relevant content, so you graduate confident and ready to start your career. All of the majors can be studied online, with support from the Geraldton Universities Centre.

The Bachelor of Arts is a flexible course, allowing you to follow your interests and create a unique, tailored program from a variety of disciplines to suit your passions and your career goals. You'll customise your degree by first choosing an Arts major and then complement it with a second major from the Arts, Commerce or Science; or with specialisations and/or elective units. To see the full list of specialisations, visit curtin.edu/specialisations.
